

I am a Sattelite Radio subscriber. I don't find their traffic and weather channel to be particularly helpful, but they should have the right to present these channels. It is a free speech issue.

John Manning